PUNIC FAITH.

We are tempted sometimes to say to the Southern people, "We told you so." Ever since the close of the war we have warned and urged the South to be careful in regard to the conditions she accepted for her restoration to the Union, and we have told her people time and again that they were dealing with a dishonest, deceitful, unscrupulous and shameless power, which respected no pledges, observed no obligations, and recognized no legal or moral restraint. We have told them time and again that their rulers were brutal cowards, for brave men would have been magnanimous and humane. We have strived to demonstrate to them that there is no reliance to be placed in the selfish oligarchy now lording over this and that their vows and pledges of faith are so much idle wind, their promises only made to ensnare, and their religion the apotheosis of falsehood, knavery, corruption and crime. Nor have we been alone in our exhortation. Earnest, sincere and thoughtful men of both sections have told them the same truths and they have heeded them not, until to day a bitter experience teaches them the lesson they failed or refused to learn.

First, Congress offered certain conditions to Georgia, and plighted the nation's faith to her complete rehabilitation if she would comply with them. Prostrate Georgia fell at its bidding, but delighted with the discovery of so much weakness, and the impunity with which it could be abused, the elated despot at Washington at once ignored all the guarantees they had made as the price of her submission, and forced her back to a satrapy and gave her over, bound hand and foot a helpless victim—to carpet bag vultures and scalawag vermin.

Virginia was likewise promised State hood by Congress, and that promise was endorsed by the President, if she would put the signet to her own humiliation, and fall down at the feet of the radical idol.—Both complied so fully with the demands of Congress, that Grant mistook her sufficiently humble and obedient, and Hoar even deceived himself with the belief that Congress would fulfil its promise. But no, Butler looks her destiny in his honored, and Virginia having shrinched herself to the mire of humiliation, will still be ruled by Canby's bayonets and carpet bag felons.

Tennessee, too, after enduring all the horrors of Brownlow's "reconstruction," having drank the bitterest dregs of a ruffian despotism, having writhed for years in the bloody throes of anarchy and pillage, and having just effected her escape from a season of horror and outrage and crime never before inflicted upon a civilized people is threatened with demolition, and a new ordeal of radical oppression.

Twice has Mississippi been deceived and cheated, and Texas has been manipulated to the full measure of Radical perfidy and caprice. As if convinced by each new outrage of their power to perpetrate partisan crimes at will, the dominant faction have gone on until to day they openly and shamelessly announce their right and determination to scrutinize the domestic economy of any State in the Union, and if its "republican form of government" does not come up to the partisan standard established by the usurpationists, to interpose the arm of force, and hurl back to a territorial, or, what is worse, a provisional condition, despite the guarantees of the Constitution, and the inherent rights of States and people. For this wave of things the South has much to blame itself for.—Had its people manifested a due regard for their own rights and refused stubbornly to accept any condition incompatible with common justice and humanity, their condition could not have been worse than it is, and they would at least have had the satisfaction of knowing that they were not instrumental in their own degradation. Their spirit and example would not have been without influence upon the people of the North, and would have resulted in restraining a reckless oligarchy in its mad career of lawlessness and crime.

Nor are these the only samples of worse than Punic faith, that have rendered this nation infamous in the eyes of the world. The shameless repudiation of the Johnson-Clarendon treaty with England was in itself a gross violation of international comity, and a breach of faith and decency that should stigmatize this country as the Carthage of modern times. The prevarication and brazen perfidy which have characterized the dealing of the present American government with Spain and Cuba have added to the contempt we are purchasing from Christendom, and unless the honest pride and spirit of the people of this land assert itself within a very brief period, Radical immortality, rapacity and vandalism will render us a synonym of baseness and a by word of scorn and reproach to the civilized world.

DO AT ROME AS THE ROMANS DO.—A young English lady making her first visit to New York city was stated in the New Year's receptions at her host's house in Fifth avenue, but knowing nothing of the customs of the country she asked for instructions as to the manner of proceeding. "Oh! you have no fear as you see us do," said the ladies of the household. Now it happened that the first caller was a brother-in-law of the young ladies, and he was rapturously received, wished a happy New Year and affectionately kissed. The young English lady stood aghast when she thought of the hundreds more like receptions which were to come and in which she was to take part. Timely explanations relieved her from her dilemma, though she privately admitted that, strange as the custom seemed to her, she had made up her mind to do at Rome as the Romans do."

NEWSPAPER SUPPRESSIONS IN LONDON.—Two old and influential London newspapers have suspended publication, and every year the fabled journalism in the metropolis of England is being opened up to the London Times and Telegraph—leviathan concerns, which, through able and admirable editorial and business management, have steadily grown in wealth and importance ever since their institution. The two journals which have just died were the Morning Herald and Evening Star. The first named was for many years the leading party organ of England.

WASHINGTON NEWS.—The Negro School Trustees have forced another negro child into the white schools of this city. This time the color sticks out thunderingly, and there is a good deal of excitement about it.

MONDAY, JANUARY 10, 1870.

THE LEGISLATURE.

This body will reassemble in this city to-day. In coming together they will find things pretty much as they left them in December. They will find but little addition to the Treasury, since they cleaned it out on leaving for the holidays.—They will find the Auditor sober, as of his Christmas visit home, and threatening to remove the Sheriff for not selling up the little driblets of taxes yet due. They will find the State on the suffering from the same state of asphyxia without any symptoms of improvement. They will find the same resolution, still in force, to give them seven dollars a day. They will find the State hardened with debt and taxation, and the people discontented and uneasy at the prospect of ruin and oppression that is threatened.

The coming together of the Legislature at this time, and its sitting in the capital at an expense to the State of about $1,500 a day, reminds us very much of a big burley fellow from the piney woods getting on a poor, lean, sway-backed pony, to ride a journey of twenty miles, over rocks and hills and through mud and mire, when the poor beast can hardly manage to carry its own carcass.

The people although they anticipate nothing good, are still anxious to see what the Legislature will do, if anything, for their relief. They want to know if they are to be taxed this year as they were last. They want to know whether the State intends to continue to repudiate the old State bonds by failing to meet the interest on them. They want to know if the inadequate sum raised by a half paid poll tax and Mr. Ashley, are the only hopes for common schools. They want to know whether the degraded and worthless new state bonds are to be called in and the interest on those unsold stopped, so as to relieve them from the special tax, or whether they are still to be called on for this full tax while many of the bonds are not sold, and the tax is not paid on those that have been.

In short, the people would like to know whether this Legislature intend to stay here at an expense to the State of $1500 a day, concocting plans and arranging the wires for the success of the party in the next election, or to try to do something worthy of a grave body of Legislators for the good of the whole people. And especially would they like to know what security the State has for twelve or fifteen millions of dollars of Railroad bonds issued by the Treasurer to certain Railroad Presidents.

We confess that we entertain no hope that the Legislature will do anything likely to meet the present emergencies. The spoils, the spoils will engage their time and attention, and what they may do will be done only for the promotion of party ends and the aggrandisement of greedy office holders.

PARTY & SLAVERY.

The present dynasty of Radicalism is the most perfect tyranny towards Radical officeholders, especially those in subordinate positions, that ever existed, and those holding these positions are as thorough slaves to the party as if they had been a bill of sale signed, sealed and delivered for them; and woe be to the man who dares to think or act outside of the behest and dictation of his masters. "Off with his head," is the peremptory and sanguinary order, the moment a man dares to think or act for himself.

A case in point has just come to our knowledge. John R. Harrison, Esq., of this city, who has for a long time been connected with the Internal revenue department, is also a member of the Penitentiary Board. In the latter capacity he voted for Dr. Wm. G. Hill for Physician to the Penitentiary. The Standard sounded the alarm and cracked the lash, but as the Board didn't seem to be scared much, and refused to undo what they thought was pretty well done, the axe was ordered out, and in the hands of Maj. Wiley D. Jones, applied to the neck of Mr. John R. Harrison, and off came his head as revenue assessor. Tom Banks has been appointed in his place, and he can't take the oath, but he has got possession of the books and papers!

John R. Harrison is an honest man, a uniform Union man, and one of the few who from conscientious convictions attached himself to the Republican party, and really gave the party more character in this section than almost any other one member of it, but because he could not, or would not consent to be a slave to party behests and dictation contrary to his conviction of right, why, he is cut off from a position in which not a single charge of mismanagement or error could be alleged against him and—Tom Banks put in his place!

We shall be obliged, we are afraid, to tell the story of "Squire" Banks' decision in the case of the Dutchman's hog, some of these days—as soon as he is sufficiently reconstructed to take the oath.

QUEENS OF SOCIETY.

There was, once, an age of chivalry, when gallant men (and all brave men were gallant) bowed in homage to lovely women, (and all virtuous women were lovely). In those simple and honest times men reverenced women for their virtue, beauty, intelligence, modesty and domestic qualities, and women swayed the scepter over the hearts of men, by their soft and soothing manners, their feminine graces, and the "Light toil, to cull and dress the frugal fare," of those whom Nature and Nature's God had evidently designed to be the heads and protectors of the "softer sex."

But the age of chivalry is past, at least in our country, and that of carpet-bag calculators has succeeded it. The unbought, enthusiastic homage and admiration of Southern men for the gentle sex is no longer seen. In the olden and better times, we might often witness the graceful gallantry, the dignified obedience, the respectful admiration of our Southern men to the "Queens of Society," who exercised an influence calculated to inspire to noble thoughts and honest action.

These "queens of society," were not of the type of Women's Rights women, who, with bold front, dressed in bifurcated garments, crowd the business thorough fares of life, mount the rostrum, and with masculine wit and double entendre, cater to the tastes of gaping ignoramuses. Nor were these queens of society those who, dressed in official purple, bedizened with diamonds and lace, claim the homage of unwilling subjects by right hereditary; but they reigned in virtue of their native charms, and by the unbought, uninterested homage of loyal and gallant men, who stood ever ready to avenge a word or even a look that threatened them with insult.

It may be considered base and unbecoming, in these days of "progress," and its concomitant rogueries, by our carpet-bag conquerors and their native allies, to indulge in chivalric homage to the virtue and modesty of woman, especially of Southern women, who have been pointed out by these "masters of the situation" as proper objects of insult and recipients of their libertious advances, and it may require some pretty severe lessons to change what appears to be becoming current sentiment on this subject.

One such lesson was taught gratis, in Montgomery county some weeks ago, which, we believe, was slightly alluded to in the Sentinel at the time, the recollection of which is recalled by a communication in another column, from a gentleman of that county, narrating a recent adventure which has happened to the party who took the lesson alluded to.

Mrs. Malinda Harris, of Saunders Hill, Montgomery county, may be poor, and the widow of a poor Confederate soldier, but she is, nevertheless one of the "queens of society," and Mr. Jordan has shown, (see the letter) that he has a spark of the old genuine feeling of chivalry about him yet; and carpet-bag Davis, Senator from Montgomery, will hardly venture upon insulting either of them again, soon.

BOILER EXPLOSION—REMARKABLE ESCAPE.—On Saturday evening last, as we learn from a friend at Magnolia, the shelter over the boiler at the steam saw mill of Merriman & Giddings, at that place, fell in, completely covering the engine and boiler and preventing the steam from escaping, when, as there was a high pressure of steam on at the time, the boiler exploded with great violence, throwing fragments of the boiler and the debris of the shelter in every direction. That no lives were lost, nor any serious injury resulted to any of the hands employed in the mill, was owing to the coolness and presence of mind of Mr. John W. Linton, the engineer, who, seeing at a glance the certainty of an explosion, warned them to keep away. He, however, was knocked down and slightly injured by a plank.—Wil. Star, Jan. 7.

EXPECTED VISITORS.—A corps of Engineers, appointed or delegated by the Superintendent of the U. S. Coast Survey to make a preliminary examination of our bar and river, with the view of an appropriation being made by Congress during its present session, in answer to the petitions of our citizens, for the purpose of improving the navigation of the same, were expected to arrive last night. They did not make their appearance, however, but we learn that the Collector of the port has been instructed, through a dispatch from Washington, to hold the Revenue Cutter Seward in readiness to accommodate them when they shall arrive, which they will probably do this evening, or at least, within the next two or three days. Our citizens, and especially the business community, should be prepared to afford them every facility in their examinations and all the information they may require in the furtherance of the object which calls them to our city.—Wil. Star, Jan. 7

THE MARYLAND LEGISLATURE.—The State Senate was fully organized yesterday by the election of the Hon. Elmer Compton, of Charles county, president; Augustus Gassaway, secretary; W. H. Hiss, reading clerk; James T. Blackiston, sergeant at arms; R. V. Page, journal clerk; S. J. Costigan, postmaster; John Williams, doorkeeper, and L. W. Selby as his assistant, and Clinton Lyles, Thomas Townsend, Alex. Robinson and E. Carmack committee clerks, with the usual number of subordinate officers. Mr. Compton, on taking the chair as president of the Senate, returned his thanks for the honor conferred upon him in a brief address, and made some excellent and practical remarks, urging the prompt dispatch of business and the observance of strict economy in the disposal of the public money.

The House elected the several nominees of the caucus to fill various offices of the body, whose names were published yesterday. Leaves were obtained to report bills of various kinds, and committees were appointed, as usual, to examine tobacco warehouses and the State penitentiary in Baltimore. The Governor's message was received and partially read. The Senate adjourned until to day, and the House until Tuesday next. The adjournment of the latter body without the consent of the Senate led to some dispute, and the sergeant at arms was directed to go out and bring back all the delegates who were about to leave for their homes, but it is doubtful if a quorum will be present to day. The sergeant at arms was in the city last evening looking up members.—Bal. Sun, Jan. 7.

RALEIGH, Jan. 10, 1870.

EDITOR SENTINEL:—That different Legislatures should differ one from another in mental character and calibre is, in this country, and more especially at this time, as much a matter of course as that individuals should differ in those respects. Elections having become a great drag-net, sweeping from the surface to the lowest bottoms of the popular sea, it is to be expected that material of all sorts will be brought up.—It was but reasonable however to have supposed that the arrogance, if not the natural pride of men, elevated to the high position of legislators in so old and respectable a State as North Carolina, would in their corporate capacity, have at least claimed, whether rightfully or otherwise, a mental capacity adequate to a discharge, to their own satisfaction at least, of their functions, and not have stultified themselves by an open and public admission of their incompetency—and this more especially in North Carolina, where the legislature is, under the constitution, supreme, and not necessarily, or only incidentally, subjected to any supervision but that of the people, and where the prerogatives of the Judiciary, are of a secondary character. The power to make laws not absolutely subject to supervision, is the highest power in a state.

The foregoing remarks have been called forth by a recent joint resolution of the Legislature referring the question of the tenure of their office, whether for two or for four years, to the decision of the Supreme Court. A question in the first place so plain, so palpable, so transparent, that even he who runs may read, and ought to understand; so palpable indeed as to have justified those who hold the affirmative of it in suspicion, by no means creditable to them.

A question in the second place (and this gives to the foregoing remarks the greater force) of which the Supreme Court can take no cognizance. Their decision of which would be extra-judicial and of no force, and the consideration of which that Court will unquestionably refuse which they have indeed already virtually refused within the last few months, and to this very Legislature, in language, one would think, not to be misunderstood. "The functions of the Court" says the Chief Justices "are restricted to cases constituted before it, we are not at liberty to prejudge questions of law."

But, as above remarked, the questions too plain. Rights and powers not clearly granted by the constitution are withheld. That is the only safe rule of construction under our government, State, as well as national,—and where in the constitution is the clearly granted power to this Legislature to hold over, to be found? Where, we ask emphatically! Is not even claimed. It can't be shown—it don't exist. But an incidental expression is resorted to for the purpose of sustaining the claim—an inference is drawn in support of it, as though so important a matter could have been left to mere inference.

Let us for a moment examine it and expose its utter futility and absurdity—we are not aware that it has been done—we were not present at any of the debates upon it in either House.

The bill of rights declares in so many words that "elections should be often held"—and is once in four years "often?" can it be fairly so read and interpreted? If so, why does the constitution go on immediately afterward to require elections to be held biennially? Would once in four years have been "often" under the old constitution. What has been the long and ancient practice of the State? What is the present practice of every State in the Union in this respect? Let these modest and sapient members of the Legislature answer.

That the constitution clearly and unquestionably calls for biennial elections, will certainly not be disputed by any sane man. But, say these claimants, the constitution makes one exception, and only one. The offices of Senators and Representatives, now sitting, who were elected at the first election held under this constitution "shall terminate at the same time as if we had been elected at the first ensuing election."

Now the word "time," here is all important and source of the difficulty in the case, though not all of it, certainly, may arise from the improper use of that word. What is meant and intended however by its use is made clearly apparent from the 29 sec., of the same article of the constitution as follows:

"The election for members of the General Assembly shall be held &c &c., on the first Thursday in August in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, and every two years thereafter. That the General Assembly may change the time of holding the election. The first election shall be held when the vote shall be taken on the ratification of the constitution by the voters of the State and the General assembly then elected shall meet on the 15 h day after the approval thereof by the Congress of the United States, if it fall not on a Sunday, but if it shall so fall, then on the next day thereafter, and the members then elected shall hold their seats until their successors are elected at a regular election."

The "time" then for the first regular election is not fixed by the constitution or by the convention but is left undetermined—left to be fixed by the General Assembly.—The time for the first election was fixed.—It was to be held when the vote should be taken on the ratification of the constitution.

And when is the regular election to be held? Why on the day that the General Assembly shall designate!

Here there was a matter in the future—a day for election to be fixed by the General Assembly—a day which would fix and terminate the term of office of the members elected at the first election as well as at every subsequent one. The Convention could not know, of course, what the General Assembly might do in this respect, when they came therefore to speak of the termination of the terms of offices of the first elected members, there being no day yet fixed for the regular election, they said,—Those terms of offices shall terminate at the same time, meaning the same time of the year, the same day of the year, the same period in the year, as the offices or terms of those members who may be elected at the first ensuing regular election will be made to terminate.

Thus the declaration in the bill of rights and every provision of the Constitution upon the subject may be made to harmonize and have its full force, whereas the construction claimed would manifestly set at nought one of its clearest, most unequivocal and wisest provisions. A.

THE PURCHASE OF CUBA.—Our Washington correspondent has seen a private letter from Madrid, which says that Prim and Serrano are both inclined to favor a sale of Cuba to the United States, but are fearful of the effect on the Spanish people, who are bitterly opposed to it. Spain needs money, and that fact would no doubt facilitate negotiations.—N. Y. Herald.

SALVAGE.—There are two reports from the West Indies about the fate of Salnave, the deposed President of Hayti. One is that he has fled to St. Domingo and claimed the protection of President Baez. The other that he shut himself up in his last fort, fired the magazine, and, together with his fourteen sons (prolific father) perished in the flames.

SCHOOLS AND TAXATION.

Now while the hard earnings of our people are gathered in by the tax collectors and squandered by the hundreds of officials that swarm in the land, we invite the attention of the honest laboring men of the State to a few plain truths.

The constitution which cunning and rascality has fastened on the State provides—

First, that not a dollar of the poll tax shall go into the Treasury. It all has to go for schools and charity.

Second, that enough money shall be raised by taxation to keep every child, black and white, at school until twenty one years of age. What the poll tax does not furnish for this purpose the property tax must.

Third, No man is compellable to pay his poll tax unless he has property which the sheriff can seize. He can vote, sit on the jury and have all other rights whether he pays his poll tax or not.

Fourth, It follows that the property of the State has to pay the enormous expenses of the new State Government, thieving included, all the Rail Road and other appropriations, with the Ring charges for getting them through, all the interest on the public debt, all manner of expenditure and then has to pay, likewise, an enormous sum to make up the amount that the poll tax lacks in sending the negroes to school until twenty one years old.

The for going, as every one will see, who will read it, is a correct exposition of the Constitution.

Let us look a little at the situation.

There are about eighty thousand negro voters in the State. They own no property. They pay a poll tax or not as they please.

Certain men of inferior talent and no principle, had the cunning to bid for this black vote in a very liberal manner. And well might they be liberal. They said to the black people: "vote us into power and we will fix it so that the property of the State shall be taxed to turn over to you for the education of your children—You need not pay a cent of tax unless you choose to do so. We will compel the owners of the property to pay a rent out of that property and that rent shall be yours. You shall be in a better situation than the land owner, for while your children are at school at his expense he cannot afford to send his children to school, but he and his wife and children are all obliged to work to raise the school tax."

Such was the bid for the vote. It was in fact so explained in the Eastern counties where the negroes were thick. The negroes all well understood it. In their speeches they so explained the subject themselves. In the Chowan, Roanoke, Neuse and Cape Fear regions, the negroes made it their rallying cry, that the new Constitution compelled the property owners to educate their children.—Galloway knew what he was about when he said the negroes did not want the land; what then is the plain english of the matter? It is that a parcel of artful manipulators at Raleigh seized upon the property of other men to buy negro votes to get themselves into office which they were unfit to fill.

The devil once attempted, without success however, the same scheme exactly.—He took the Saviour into a high mountain and showing him the kingdoms spread out before him said in substance, "All these will I give thee if thou wilt go for me." The devil did not own the things that he offered to give. He owned them however quite as much as Holden and his crew owned the income of the property that they seized upon to buy negro votes with.

What the devil failed to do, Holden, Rodman, Pool, Sam Watts and Todd Caldwell, found to be the easiest sort of a job. People of North Carolina, how long will you stand the degradation put upon you? The conquest of the State by the Federal army was nothing compared to the miserable fate of being thus enslaved by mean unprincipled white men, who have sold their very souls for a parcel of offices.

Look at this taxation matter. If Holden and his crew had passed a law that a negro had the right to go into your field and take away ten barrels of your corn you would get your gun and go to shooting. But they have done worse than that. They have the law so that you shall gather the corn, sell it, and pay the money for the negroes' use.

Mr. David Smith with his wife and little children toil through the winter's cold and the summer's heat; they live hard; the children have not time to go to school; the tax on the little home must be paid or the sheriff will sell it. The school house near by is filled by negro children who won't, no doubt, why the white children are not at school. Holden could explain to them. He could say, it was because there was no other way for him to be Governor. Reason could steel light too; and so on down. And yet there were white men enough in North Carolina to follow in the lead of such creatures and thus enslave their own race.

Looking into Hawks's history of North Carolina, we find that on one occasion the Indians rose upon the whites and nearly exterminated them, and that a white man named Carey helped the Indians. Isn't Carey the progenitor of some of these vermin of the present day? Every man who run on that immense omnibus ticket with Holden, long'd in there as a rider, is responsible for the villainy to which we have referred. Each one of them was only looking out for himself and thinking, "devil take the country, so I get into office." Will there not some day come a retribution?

Alas, for poor old North Carolina! Eighty thousand black masters followed by forty thousand white nigger slaves all led by men who would rather see the State in hell than themselves out of office!

"Wide o'er the field a waste of ruin lies!" We have seen the question, "what sort of a religion is that where God is a monkey?" So we ask, what sort of a State is it which has all these two legged slugs in human shape controlling its destiny? No wonder its bonds sell at twenty-five cents in the dollar. No wonder, in short, that it is the laughing stock of the whole civilized world.

OUTRAGEOUS ASSAULT.—A shameful assault was committed by three negroes upon Mr. Alex. Oldham, at his own residence yesterday. The principal assailant, whose name is Allen Jones, has a wife, it seems, in the employ of Mr. Oldham and living upon his premises. It was there Jones came yesterday in an intoxicated condition and kicked up such a row that Mr. Oldham's wife became frightened and sent for her husband. That gentleman arriving he proceeded to order Jones and two negroes, who were with him, one of them known as Jacob, off his premises, at the same time catching Jones by the arm. It was then that Jones turned upon him furiously, and Mr. Oldham was prevented from striking him by one of the other negroes who held his arm. Thus assisted Jones succeeded in choking Mr. Oldham quite badly, but the gentleman succeeded in releasing himself and sent for the police, who on arriving found only Jones. This offender was at once arrested and placed in the guard house. The other parties have not yet been taken.—Wil. Journal, Jan. 7.

THE LEGISLATURE AND STATE BONDS.

At its last session, the Legislature authorized the issue of State bonds for all sorts of purposes. From the resolutions which have been introduced since that body re-assembled, it looks as though some of the members at least, are disposed to act with more prudence and caution than have characterized their proceedings hitherto.

The calling in of such bonds as were issued contrary to law, that the same may be canceled; and such others as were issued in conformity with the provisions of the Constitution, but which have not passed beyond the control of the State authorities, that they may be withheld from market until they will command a higher price, are measures which, no doubt, would tend to enhance the credit of the State, and most certainly would meet with the approval of the tax payers.

In this connection, I beg to call the attention of the Legislature to a matter, which, as it effects the credit of the State in financial circles, is of much more importance than many might at first suppose. It is this; before the war, the State was largely interested in Railroads, then in course of construction, and aided the companies by issuing bonds to pay the State's stock. I think it was at the last session of the Legislature before the war, that authority was given to the public Treasurer to issue a certain amount of State bonds for the benefit of the Western North Carolina Railroad Company, which bonds were to pay the State's subscription to that company. Owing to some delay, these bonds were not issued until October 1st, 1861, and it being subsequent to the ratification of the ordinance of secession, of course the bonds are dated "Confederate States," and this fact has, thrown them entirely out of the market, especially, since a bill to validate them failed to pass last Spring. This tardiness on the part of the State, to assume and issue new bonds for this amount (which cannot be evaded without open repudiation) has done a great deal to depress the credit of the State. I have been assured of this fact, by a resident of New York, who is interested in the welfare of his native State, and who occupies a position which enables him to speak understandingly.

Would it not be much better for the Legislature to pass a bill at once, authorizing the issue of bonds for this amount and thereby, give capitalists some tangible evidence of the State's intention to pay all her just liabilities, than to delay action until cited to the opinion of Chief Justice Chase, in the case of bonds issued by the city of Richmond?

A CARPET BAG SENATOR GETS A MAULING.

MR. EDITOR:—Senator John H. Davis, of doubtful nativity, attended a meeting of the citizens of Montgomery county, at Troy, on Christmas day, for the purpose of giving an expression on the question of prolonging the term of the present Legislature to four years, &c., &c.

Whilst this adventurer was in the grog shop treating the crowd and making a grogshop speech, Allen Jordan, Esq., a former representative in the Legislature from Montgomery, and a respectable lawyer, and also a member of the Radical party, walked in and asked the renowned Senator if he had made the remark that he (Jordan) was Joe. Turner's "sab toter," (because he carried a present to a respectable lady of Montgomery, who had been grossly insulted by the carpet bag Senator) to which the Senator replied, that he had said so, conditionally. Mr. Jordan immediately took up a chair and trailed him gentlemanly. Mr. Jordan then walked down to the Court House for the purpose of attending the proposed meeting. After Mr. J. left the "Senator" resumed his harangue, and boasted of the number of friends he had around him. He then also went down to the Court House and proposed to those around him to take another "sociable" drink, and go up stairs and hold the meeting. On going up stairs he approached near Mr. Jordan, who on perceiving him, fell in upon him, and gave him another sound thrashing. During the time the redoubtable grogshop hero was trying to "get further," but Mr. Jordan held him by one hand and pummeled him soundly with the other, while the crowd gave three hearty cheers for Jordan. The "Senator" very soon left, with his comb very considerably cut.

This is the second time that the "Senator" has been chaired (cheered;) on a former occasion by Mrs. Harris, for calling her a "damned liar," and, now by Mr. Jordan for calling him Joe. Turner's "sab toter"—Verily this man had better return North and attend to the milking of his cows, where he says owns forty head, that gives a bushel of milk per day each! He has certainly missed his calling in these parts—many here suppose him to have been formerly a Northern organ grinder. J. A.

POPPING THE QUESTION.—Lord Justice Clerk Braxfield was a man of few words and strong business habits. In courting his wife, his procedure was entirely illustrative of the peculiarities of his character. Calling for the lady, he said to her without preliminary remarks:

"Lizzie, I am looking out for a wife, and I thought you just the person that would suit me. Let me have your answer, yes or no, the more, and say one maire about it."

The lady the next day replied in the affirmative.

Perhaps he repented his precipitancy, for when a Butler gave warning, on account of Mrs Braxfield's scolding propensities, the Judge replied:

"Lord, man, ye've little to complain o'; ye may be thankin' ye're no married to her."

The late Professor D. was, prior to his appointment to his chair, rector of an academy in Forfarshire. He was particularly reserved in his intercourse with the fair sex; but, in prospect of obtaining a professorship, he ventured to make proposals to a lady. They were walking together, and the important question was put without preliminary sentiment or notes of warning. Of course the lady replied a gentle "no." The subject was immediately dropped; but the parties soon met again.

"Do you remember," at length said the lady, "a question which you put to me when we last met?"

The Professor said that he did remember.

"And don't you remember my answer, Mr. D.?"

"Oh yes," said the Professor.

"Well, Mr. D.," proceeded the lady, "I have been led, on consideration, to change my mind."

"So have I," dryly responded the Professor.

He maintained his bachelorhood to the close of his life.

IS A HOME COMPANY.

Owned and conducted by Southern men. It employs its funds at home for the benefit of Southern enterprises.

IT IS THE PIONEER COMPANY OF THE SOUTH, in all the new and liberal features of Life Insurance, presenting advantages not offered by any other Company, note the following points.

1st. Low Rates of Insurance, with a credit of one third, the Premium as a perpetual Loan.
2d. THIRTY DAYS GRACE for the payment of all premiums, and the Policy held good for that length of time.
3d. Policies Non-Forfeiting after the first payment.
4th. Policies indisputable from any cause save fraud.
5th. No restrictions of Residence, Travel or occupation.
6th. It is a Mutual Insurance Company ninety four per cent of the Profits are divided among the insured on the contribution plan, and as money commands higher rates of interest in the South than North or East, the probability is almost certain that the dividends will exceed those of Northern Companies, this reducing the premiums to their lowest actual cost.
7th. Under the Charter of this Company, Policies of Insurance are not subject to the debts of the Insured. Policies in favor of a wife or children are payable to them or their guardians direct.
8th. This company issues policies guaranteeing six per cent. compound interest in addition to the insurance of the amount insured. Parties about to insure would do well to examine the tables and plans of this company before insuring in any other company. The Globe takes no notes; but receives its premiums in cash, and pays its policies in cash, without deduction.

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL CASH COMPANY IN THE WEST!

The Stock of this Company is owned by the Capitalists of Louisville, Ky., and St. Louis, Mo. It is emphatically a Western and Southern Institution.

The DE SOTO has no desire to exalt its merits over those of other good Companies, nor to prosper on the decline of others, laboring in the same fields, and for the same grand object. Confident of its equal advantages with others, of whatever age or standing, it is willing to labor honorably for success, and hopes to deserve the public confidence by its energy, industry, and liberal spirit.

From the Missouri Republican.

"Few Companies have started out with such gratifying and flattering prospects of success, and under such favorable auspices. The Company has been extremely fortunate in the selection of its Directory. Its President, James H. Lucas, needs not a word of commendation from us. He enjoys a general reputation as a gentleman of wealth, unquestioned integrity, practical good sense, sound judgment and splendid business capacity.

The Directors rank among the first class of our merchants, bankers and citizens, in men of capital, in real ability and experience: men of probity and unblemished reputation. In the character of such a Directory, the community have the best guarantee that the business of the Company will be prudently and judiciously managed."

Policies issued on all the popular plans and all Non-Forfeiting.

Policy-holders may travel by the usual modes of conveyance, either by land, river, lake or coastwise, in any portion of the United states and Territories, the settled portions of the two Canadas, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and in time of peace may cross and recross the Atlantic Ocean by the usual passenger routes to, and travel and reside within, any portion of Europe.

THE SENTINEL.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

MONDAY, JANUARY 10, 1870.

Thos. N. Ramsay, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c. &c.

Hereafter all obituaries not exceeding ten lines in length (eight words to the line), will be published free; for any number of lines over ten, ten cents per line will be charged — to be accompanied, in every instance, by the cash, to insure publication.

We would direct the particular attention of parents and guardians to the advertisement of the Pleasant Garden Classical Schools for males and females. Read the announcement.

We call attention to the notice of Board in a private family, close to the Capitol and business part of the city, where the accomodations of a hotel blend with the comforts of a home.

CONNECTION.—In noticing the new head of the Raleigh Episcopal Methodist, a few days ago, we said that paper was edited by Rev. W. H. Bobbitt, whereas, we should have written Rev. J. B. Bobbitt. We don't know what we were thinking about, when we wrote it so.

MECHANICS' BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION.—An exhibit of the transactions of this Association up to December 31st, shows, on shares paid $14 384; premium shares redeemed $7.433; premium on new stock $846 25; interest $440 02; fines $94. 10; advance payments $20, making a total of $23,217,37. The loans amount to $22,400, expenses, fines due, delinquencies, interest due and cash on hand to balance, $817,37.

The election of officers for the ensuing year was held on Saturday night, when, we believe, the old officers were re-elected.

CÆSAR SELLS OUT.—A friends relates to us a little incident that occurred recently, "up the road," that is worth chronicling.

Cæsar Graham is an astute darky, and generally keeps his eye skinned for the main chance. He is moreover, one of that class of colored men whom the leagues denominate "traitors to their race," because he has more confidence in Southern gentlemen than he has in radical carpet baggers.

Cæsar heard that Mr. M. wanted to buy a mule, so he sought him out, and asked him, "you want to buy a mule, Mr. M.?"

"Yes."

"Well, I'll sell you mine."

"What sort of a mule is it?" enquired Mr. M.

"Fine, large mule," said Cæsar, "and in first rate order."

"What do you ask for him?" enquired M.

"Well, I'll take $150 for him, one half cash and the balance when you get him."

"I'll take him," said M., "if he is as you represent him, where is he?"

"Gov. Holden's got him, I'll give you an order on him for him; he promised him to me two years ago, but as I have not had any use for him, I have not been after him. But I know he's sure, for Gov. Holden told me so."

Mr. M. didn't pursue the trade any further, and Cæsar is still looking for a purchaser for his mule.

SUPREME COURT.—Saturday, Jan. 8th.—The Chief Justice and all the Associates being present, Court was opened by the Marshal, at the usual hour.

In addition to the gentlemen of the Bar, who have heretofore been mentioned as appearing in Court during the week, Hon. B. F. Moore was in attendance; this being his first appearance at the Bar of the Supreme Court, since he was Pruled in contempt" last year.

The case of Norfleet vs. Cromwell, from Edgecombe, was argued by Mr. Moore, counsel of the Plaintiff; some subsequent day of the term, the argument will be continued by Howard, for Defendants. With this case, the 1st and 2nd Districts are ended. Next week, cases from the 4th and 5th Districts will be called. Court adjourned till Monday, 10 A. M.

The Newbern Times says that the municipal election in Washington N. C. on last Monday, resulted in a Republican victory by 115 majority.

EXCITING CHASE—BURGLAR CAUGHT.—In June last a burglary was committed on the premises of Mr. John Hardy, about six miles from Tarboro', some $300 worth of property being carried off consisting of wearing apparel, meat, meal, flour, &c.

A search warrant was immediately taken out by Mr. Hardy, and more than twelve houses examined, but no evidence of the burglary discovered at that time. Since then suspicion has attached to a negro named Burwell Hoskins, and a warrant issued for his arrest was placed in the hands of Constable Edward Zoeller.

On Saturday morning last Mr. Zoeller received information that Johnson was in town, when he determined to effect his arrest. The negro was on the alert, and before Mr. Z could approach nearer than 40 yards the thief gave "leg bail," making off at double quick time down the street, followed by the constable and eight or ten bystanders, who eagerly joined in the pursuit.

Down one street and up another the exciting chase continued, until, finding that he was likely to be intercepted, the negro made for Hendrick's Creek, with the purpose of swimming across. In attempting this his feet became entangled in some vines, and was going under the last time when the pursuers came up and rescued him, by the wool, from a watery grave.

On Monday morning he was taken before Justices W. H. Knight and B. J. Keech, and committed to jail in default of bail.

Hoskins is a notorious character, having at this time some five or six indictments pending against him in Pitt county.—Tarboro Southerner.

THE CHINESE MISSION.—Ex-Governor Low is on his way to New York from Washington, and next Saturday will start by rail to San Francisco. On the first of next month he will sail for Shanghae to assume his duties as United States Minister in China. He has received full instructions to carry out faithfully the provisions of the Burlingame treaty, and especially to be prompt and firm on the question of protecting American citizens and property in the Celestial empire.

THE TELEGRAPHS.—We thought it probable, from indications yesterday, that the "little unpleasantness" between the Telegraph Company and the operators, would be adjusted, and that we should have our regular dispatches for this issue. But such has not proved the case. We are not fully posted as to the present status of the affair, but, from what we can gather, most of the operators on the interior of the Southern line have been reinstated and gone to work. An exception, however, is made in the case of Mr. Starke of this city. On Friday night, an operator from Staunton, Va., arrived here to supercede Mr. Starke, but he was waited on by several citizens interested in the telegraphs here, and informed that the movement was disagreeable to the community, and he left on the return train the same night. Up to this writing (8 o'clock, Saturday night) nothing is settled in regard to Mr. Starke's case.

We think the people at every telegraph station ought to stand by the operators in this movement, and we have no doubt they will, except here and there a heartless money grabber, whose business may be slightly interrupted by it, and who don't care if those who serve them starve so they make. The people ought to stand by the operators, because they are, as it were, the only breakwater between the public and a powerful moneyed Company, who, without some check, can practice what extortion on the public they please.

The Press, almost unanimously, so far as we have noticed, sustain the operators in their course, notwithstanding the temporary inconvenience it causes.

We look upon the whole matter as a struggle between money and brains, and we are decidedly in favor of the brains party. Not that we would intimate that there are no brains on the side of the Company, for they have manifested much ingenuity in this contest, but we believe the right to be on the other side, and, therefore, intend to stand up to the operators.

The Rads were defeated last Monday in the municipal election in Henderson. The Liberal or Conservative ticket for Mayor and Commissioners, triumphing by handsome majorities.

At Kinston, W. F. Loftin, (rad.) was elected Mayor over Captain S. B. West, (dem.) by 35 majority.

An old woman, named Judy Peacock, died on the plantation of Mr. P. H. Sasser near Goldsboro, on Tuesday last, aged 114 years.

The Living Machine.

Injure the main spring of a watch and every portion of the works becomes disordered. The human stomach is to the human system what that elastic piece of metal is to a chronometer. It influences the action of the other organs, and controls, to a certain extent, the whole living machine. The comparison may be carried further; for as the weakness or other imperfections of the main spring is indicated on the face of the time-piece, so also is the weakness or other disorder of the stomach betrayed by the face of the invalid. The complexion is as low or faded, the eyes are deficient in lustre and intelligence, and there is a worn, anxious expression in the whole countenance which tells as plainly as written words could do, that the great nourishing organ whose office it is to minister to the waste of the body, and to sustain and renew all its parts, is not performing its duty. It requires renovating and regulating, and to accomplish this end Hostetter's Stomach Bitters may be truly said to be the one thing needful. The broken main spring of a watch may be replaced by a new one, but the stomach can only be repaired and strengthened, and this is one of the objects of the famous vegetable restorative which for eighteen years has been waging a successful contest with dyspepsia in all climates.—As a specific for indigestion it stands alone. When the resources of the pharmacopœia have been exhausted, without at best, doing more than mitigating the complaint, a course of this wholesome and palatable, yet powerful, stomachic effects a perfect and permanent cure. In all cases of dyspepsia the liver is more or less disordered, and upon this important gland, as well as upon the stomach and bowels, the Bitters act with singular distinctness, regulating and reinvigorating every secretive and assimilating organ on which bodily and mental health depend.

FEEDING BY MACHINERY.

We learn from an English source that a Philadelphia draryman has, it is stated, invented a most ingenious machine for feeding quadrupeds in a hurry. It is called an oat-meter, and animals can be easily trained to adapt themselves to its use. The drayman has a mule of his own which gets through a peck of oats by means of the apparatus in an incredibly short time. The mule sits upon his haunches and straightens out his neck; a peck of oats is then slung into him at a single revolution of the cylinder inside in a minute and a quarter. It is proposed to place this invention within the reach of all classes. The inventor is now making a model of one to be used in hotels, steamboats, railway refreshment buffets and second rate boarding houses.—It is confidently expected that the human feedmeter will enable people to swallow their food ten times faster than before.—There can be no doubt of the value and importance of the discovery, and we hope that the time saved by its means will be devoted to intellectual pursuits, in which case we may look for a corresponding acceleration in the progress of civilization.—In the case of public banquets care must be taken that the abbreviation of the dinner is not made an excuse for lengthening the speeches after it, otherwise the machine will prove a curse instead of a blessing.

MEETING OF THE DIRECTORS OF THE WILMINGTON & WELDON RAILROAD.—The Directors of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad met at the President's office yesterday. The resignation of Governor Holden as a Director was accepted. The vacancy was not filled.

The old officers were all re-elected. There was a very general and considerable reduction of salaries.

The survey of the proposed branch from Wilson to Greenville was ordered, and the offer of President Bridgers to lease the road at six per cent. upon its cost was confirmed.—Wil. Journal Jan. 7th.

A WISE AND CONTENTED KING.—It is said that an interview of the following nature took place between the King of the Sandwich Islands, and an American who was sent there to see about purchasing them. When our ambassador broached the project to the King, that dignitary sat smoking and looking as contented with the world as if he had been one of Wordsworth's beggars. Having listened to the proposition, he replied: "See here, I get $40 000 a year now for being King, and if I should do what you want me to, I should not be a king any longer, but only a private citizen, and I would not get $40,000 per year, for your President gets only $25,000. Now, I don't think it would pay to sell out—do you?" Our ambassador looked at the mass of grease and contentment, and simply remarked: "Your Majesty, your head is level." Whereupon the King smiled and smoked on.

At a meeting of the City Council Wednesday night Chas. Overman, Esq., was elected City Marshal and Mr. A. Burwell re elected Clerk. We understand a resolution was introduced reducing the salaries of the Mayor, Clerk, and Marshal.—Charlotte Observer 7th.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!
PHALON'S
"VITALIA;"
OR,
Salvation for the Hair.
CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!
For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

☞ Phalon's Vitalia ☜ is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

THE OCEAN MAILS.—Postmaster General Creswell has proved victorious in the contest with the Cunard, Inman, Hamburg and Bremen steamship lines. These companies entered into a combination to refuse the new rates offered by Mr. Creswell, and even to demand a higher rate than $2,015 per ton, formerly paid for the transportation of the ocean mails, and it was feared that the Postmaster General would be obliged to send the foreign letters by a slow line of steamers. At the eleventh hour, however, the North German Lloyd's Company, running the Hamburg and Bremen lines, yielded and agreed to carry the mails at the new rate of two cents an ounce, or $716 80 a ton. These German lines formerly carried the Thursday's mail, but will now change their sailing day to Saturday, and will carry the Thursday's and Saturday's mails on the latter day. The Tuesday's and Wednesday's mails will be combined, and will be taken out on Wednesday by the Williams & Guion line. It is believed that the National Steamship line to Queenstown and Liverpool will carry the Irish mails and the bulk of the English mails.

CO-OPERATIVE WASHING.—Some time since the Socialist Society at Oneida constructed at a cost of six thousand dollars, a building in which to do the washing and ironing of the whole community. The number of people for whom washing is done is two hundred and thirty-seven.—The number of pieces washed for each person is eighteen. The actual weekly cash expense is twenty-nine cents a head.—There is no reason why this co-operative system of washing should not be in vogue everywhere, particularly in towns and villages where the people know one another well. There is certainly a decided difference between paying twenty cents per dozen and twelve shillings per dozen for washing.

DIVIDENDS PAID AT THE END OF THE FIRST YEAR, AND ANNUALLY THEREAFTER.

Its ratio of expense to income is extremely low. This may be seen by reference to the Official Reports for 1868. For example:

EXPENSE ON THE $100 RECEIVED.

KNICKERBOCKER,	$18.54
EQUITABLE,	17.44
NORTH AMERICA,	21.16
BROOKLYN,	21.09
UNIVERSAL,	27.94
JOHN HANCOCK,	16.27
THE NATIONAL,	63.48
THE ÆTNA,	13.41

It has an IMPORTANT NEW FEATURE that has been copyrighted. According to this plan the rates are MUCH LOWER than in any other Company in the world.

Its ratio of Mortality is low. Its rates are very low. Its expenses are very low. Its dividends are large.

It insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868, than any other Company, except one. It insured more Policies in the United States than any other save one. It insured more lives in Canada than any other Company, British or American.

See what the HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity, we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fullness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the ÆTNA LIFE, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt, full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which it has fulfilled the purposes of its formation."

"Its success has been almost unbounded and beyond all precedent. Eight years ago, in 1861, it issued only 584 policies, received an income of seventy-eight thousand dollars, and possessed nett assets summing up to something over two hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars; but last year, 1868, it granted 13 807 new policies, more than any other Company except the Mutual Life; received an income exceeding six million dollars and had amassed solid, securely and profitably invested nett assets amounting to over Ten Million Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. And this wonderful ratio of growth has been sustained in 1869."
